We depend on electricity and electrical products to provide light, make work easier, entertain and provide comfort. WHEREAS, Nearly everyone uses and depends on electricity every day, and

WHEREAS, most users of electricity take for granted the benefits, but are unaware of common electrical hazards, and

WHEREAS, Some 1,100 die of shock or in electrically-related fires in this country each year, and

WHEREAS, Resulting property loss from 205,000 fires totals $950 million, and

WHEREAS, Many of these electrical shocks and electrically-caused fires could be avoided if consumers were aware of common hazards that cause such shocks and fires:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1985, as
